Whitestone Infant School is a friendly and successful school, where children's needs are always put first. Our last Ofsted report in September 2023 graded the school as 'Good' with outstanding Early Years provision & Personal Development. We are committed to further developing and enhancing the opportunities we provide for our children.

The Governors wish to appoint an enthusiastic teacher who displays exemplary practice to join our dedicated team from April 2026. We are seeking a teacher who has a passion for learning and can inspire others in our determined journey towards improving outcomes for all groups of pupils. ECTs and recently qualified teachers are also warmly encouraged to apply.

If you feel you are able to meet our high standards, we would love to hear from you. You would be very welcome to arrange a visit for a tour of our school and take a look at our website.

An application form and further details are attached below. Please send completed applications directly to the school. This post is subject to an Enhanced DBS disclosure.

As an Equal Opportunities employer, we welcome applicants from all sections of the community, and aim to reflect the community in which we serve (section 38 (1)(B) of the Race Relations Act 1976 applies.)

Additional Information
